

Controllable generation

Joint framework consistently improves SADE across all datasets and guidance modes against the continuous trajectory generation baseline.

